

CHARLES A. CANNON

A Mind for Business, A Heart for People

INDEX of TOPICS

Advertising

Branding, logos	17:12-19:18
Sex in advertising	19:19-20:01

Cannon, Charles A.

Introduction, Cannon Mills, community	00:00-00:54
Siblings, dedication to working in textiles	9:29-10:07
Inheritance of J.W. Cannon's mill, leadership	13:37-16:41
Conservative financial practices, relationship with community, involvement in North Carolina's debt crisis	20:59-23:54
Personality, open door policy (See also: Leadership)	25:54-29:14
Commitment to veterans, personal loss of son	31:29-33:05
Philanthropic priorities	34:44-36:55
Later years, work, interests	42:00-43:03
Character, interaction with others in mill and community	45:11-46:40
Leadership role in textile industry, involvement in Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1964	47:25-48:37
Death	51:03-52:22
Legacy in historical context	52:23-55:50

Cannon, James William (J.W.)

"Work, play, live" community concept	1:02-3:18
Birth, education, early life, introduction to textile industry	4:14-8:08
Creation of mill village (See also: Mill Town)	12:01-13:36

Civil Rights

Roles of African Americans in mills (See also: Labor)	33:05-33:26
Discrimination, Cannon Mills' role in Civil Rights	38:25-41:52

Cotton

46:41-48:37

Duke, James B.

7:27-7:44

Gardner, Max (Governor)

22:09-22:55

Great Depression

Consolidated companies before Great Depression	15:50-16:13
Black Tuesday, pressure on southern labor force, keeping workers employed.	20:03-22:37

Labor

Recruitment of laborers, children and workforce	8:09-9:13
Housing laborers in mill village, mill town infrastructure	11:46-12:37
Workplace standards, labor relations (See also: Eleanor Roosevelt)	33:27-34:43

Leadership

Open door policy	25:54-29:14
Charles Cannon values, knowledge, and support	45:11-46:40
Charles Cannon's legacy as a leader	52:23-52:48
Charles Cannon's dedication and vision	53:08-54:31

Legislation

46:41-48:37

Kennedy, John F. (See also: Legislation) (See also: Trade)

47:25-48:37

Mill Town

Introduction of Kannapolis, NC	1:03-3:18
Building of a mill village, self-contained location	6:37-8:21
Institutions in close proximity to mill	11:46-12:41
Mill housing, maintenance	29:17-30:03

Nader, Ralph (See also: Paternalism)

49:01-50:03

New York City

New York sales office of Cannon Mills, Inc.	6:20-6:37
Charles Cannon business trips to New York	42:00-42:40

Paternalism

Criticism, negative connotations	43:32-44:31
Questioning of paternalism (See also: Ralph Nader)	49:00-50:37

Philanthropy

Scholarship, support of education	34:44-36:21
Charles Cannon legacy and continuing impact	51:56-52:23
Cannon Charitable Interests today	54:52-55:18

Roosevelt, Eleanor

33:27-34:43

Strikes

1921 strikes in textile mills, eviction of union organizers	14:48-15:49
Flying Squadrons, protection of Kannapolis mill workers (See also: Great Depression) (See also: Unions)	23:56-25:54

Textile Mills	4:14-8:21
Trade, International
Two-priced cotton, overseas competitors (See also: Legislation)	47:31-48:59
Present-day Kannapolis	52:34-53:07
Unincorporated towns	1:37-3:18
Unions
Contented labor, compliance, Knights of Labor	12:38-13:09
1921 strikes, eviction of union organizers	14:46-15:49
Workplace standards	33:27-34:43
Women in Workforce
Jobs open to women, Wilma the Weaver	30:59-31:28
African American domestic laborers	39:18-39:42
Policy on workplace harassment	44:31-45:05
World War I	10:08-10:43
World War II
Suppliers during wartime	10:38-10:43
Supply, workforce, re-integration of veterans (See also: Women in Workforce)	30:05-31:48
YMCA	37:23-38:23